PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRACY AND NON-VIOLENCE

final

[Statement by Chairman]

As Chairman of the opening plenary session of these negotiations I confirm that all participants in the negotiations - that is, the British and Irish Governments, the Alliance Party, Labour, the Northern Ireland Women's Coalition, the Progressive Unionist Party, the Social Democratic and Labour Party, the Ulster Democratic Party, the Ulster Democratic Unionist Party, and the UK Unionist Party - have made clear their total and absolute commitment to all the principles of democracy and non-violence set out in paragraph 20 of the report of the International Body, that is:

- to democratic and exclusively peaceful means of resolving political issues;
- to the total disarmament of all paramilitary organisations;
- to agree that such disarmament must be verifiable to the satisfaction of an independent commission;
- to renounce for themselves, and to oppose any effort by others, to use force, or threaten to use force, to influence the course or the outcome of all-party negotiations;
- to agree to abide by the terms of any agreement reached in all-party negotiations and to resort to democratic and exclusively peaceful methods in trying to alter any aspects of that outcome with which they may disagree; and
- to urge that "punishment" killings and beatings stop and to take effective steps to prevent such actions.
