

Strand One Agenda : UUP Draft

- 1 . Discussion of the requirements for a new beginning for relationships within Northern Ireland, including fundamental aspects of the problem; democratic realities; issues of identity and allegiance; duties and responsibilities of citizens; possible structure and mechanism for the protection of rights.
- 2 . Consideration of possible principles and criteria for new arrangements within Northern Ireland, including inter alia the extent to which present or proposed arrangements command community support.
- 3 . The question of institutional and other practical implications of 1 & 2 above, including the nature of institutional arrangements for and within Northern Ireland: the nature and extent of legislative, executive, administrative powers; law and order matters; safeguards to maintain community confidence; financial arrangements.
- 4 . Report to Plenary.

Strand Two Agenda : UUP Draft

- 1 . Discussion of the requirements for a new beginning for relationships between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland, including fundamental aspects of the problem; underlying realities; identity and allegiance.
- 2 . Common interests e.g. economic co-operation and development, security co-operation, law enforcement co-operation and environmental co-operation.
- 3 . The question of practical arrangements and principles to meet agreed requirements, inter alia whether such arrangements and principles are best expressed on a British Isles basis, a Northern Ireland/Republic of Ireland basis, a local cross frontier basis or a combination thereof.
- 4 . Measures for the guarantee and protection of both individual rights and territorial integrity.
- 5 . Examination of how conclusions reached on each of the above can to be included in a replacement to the Anglo-Irish Agreement of 1985.
- 6 . Report to Plenary.

Strand Three Agenda : UUP Draft

- 1 . Examination of the causes of conflict in Northern Ireland and the effect of that conflict upon relationships between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland including at a social, commercial and governmental level.
- 2 . Discussion of the essential elements to establish relationships between the two nations in accordance with established principles of international law and practice. Such elements include, inter alia recognition of the integrity of each nation, the rights of the two groups of citizens and areas of interest common to each nation.
- 3 . Possible establishment of a new institution to reflect the new understanding of the relationships between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland - the scope of such a body, the composition of such a body and the constitutional implications of such a body.
- 4 . Examination of how conclusions reached on each of the above can be included in a replacement to the Anglo-Irish Agreement of 1985.
- 5 . Report to Plenary.