LABOUR, proposes that the motion of indictment against Sinn Fein, as proposed by the Official Unionist Party, proceeds later on today. Our suggestion is 6pm.

All the parties are present in the building.

Until this motion of indictment is dealt with, there will inevitably be further delay in adopting the procedural motion to be proposed by the governments.

In our opinion further delays could well encourage more atrocities in the coming days, as they have been seen to have had their desired effect.

Malachi Curran, LABOUR delegate.
