

While Rule 27 defines sufficient consensus for the purpose of decisions in each format, it shall be necessary in the case of any determination of the outcome of these negotiations as a whole to obtain such a substantial level of consensus as will give political efficacy to any final action on a comprehensive agreement.

UKUP