Spoke to Ancram:-

- (1) Is the docu (response to Hume) negotiable with the Irish? — Not in any major way! "The 2 governments" may have to become H.H.G. — its our paper.
- (2) But if any changes are made subsequent to Hume receiving the letter then he, de facto, is involved in Govt drafting of policy?
No, the Govt has defined its position — we were responding to John Hume — (his "initiative") — so it had to be before we showed it to the Irish. If they don't want to join with us, then its our response.
