Gerry Adams comments on Ranniskillen explosion

The Sinn Féin President Gerry Adams commenting on the explosion near Ranniskillen said:

"I am greatly relieved that no one was seriously hurt in last night's explosion in Ranniskillen. The IRA have stated clearly that they were not involved.

"This bomb comes at a time when the British Prime Minister, John Major, and the unionist leaderships are in the dock for their disgraceful behaviour over the past week. Whoever claims responsibility for this attack I will remain suspicious as to the real authors." ENDS
