Prime Minister

My dear John,

I am most grateful for your letter delivered to me yesterday by Brian Naulinney. I have given Brian an accurate account as far as I can of the events of last week and also my reading of the current situation. It is very grave but I will continue to do all I can to work towards a resolution from my perspective. I am convinced that we need see real progress at the talks level - political agreement even on a limited basis would do to need to make this aspect of this problem, e.g. parades, manageable.

I remain available to do anything you feel would be useful. You only have to ask.

With warmest good wishes.

Yours ever,

Robin.
