Dear Mr. O'Kane,

Many thanks for your Downing Street Declaration paper which, I am afraid, I am only now getting around to reading. I have been out of the country and very busy on other assignments since it arrived.

May I congratulate ^{you} on the effort you have so obviously put into the document and ~~for~~ ^{on} the compact and comprehensive nature of its contents. I hope your Ph.D. ambitions are realised - if this has not happened already.

Best wishes & thanks again.

Ernest Nally
