ANNEX

THE MITCHELL PRINCIPLES

Mitchell Report, paras 19 and 20

- 19. To reach an agreed political settlement and to take the gun out of Irish politics, there must be commitment and adherence to fundamental principles of democracy and non-violence. Participants in all-party negotiations should affirm their commitment to such principles.
- 20. Accordingly, we recommend that the parties to such negotiations affirm their total and absolute commitment:
 - 2a. To democratic and exclusively peaceful means of resolving political issues;
 - 2b. To the total disarmament of all paramilitary organisations;
 - 2c. To agree that such disarmament must be verifiable to the satisfaction of an independent commission;
 - 2d. To renounce for themselves, and to oppose any effort by others, to use force, or threaten to use force, to influence the course or the outcome of all-party negotiations;
 - 2e. To agree to abide by the terms of any agreement reached in all-party negotiations and to resort to democratic and exclusively peaceful methods in trying to alter any aspect of that outcome with which they may disagree; and,
 - 2f. To urge that "punishment" killings and beatings stop and to take effective steps to prevent such actions.
