Dear Prime Minister,

First of all can I congratulate you on a resounding victory. I hope the changes you bring for the United Kingdom shall benefit us all.

You face many challenges in the next five years, but I hope you shall give Northern Ireland the priority its people deserve and that your commitment to assist the search for a democratic resolution to our conflict shall not wane.

I would welcome the opportunity to meet with you at your earliest convenience so that we may discuss the peace process. The multi-party Talks resume on June 3rd and there shall be much to do in the first few weeks to bring stability to the process and I think it would be useful for us both if we could exchange views upon how that can be achieved.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

yours sincerely,

Councillor Gary McMichael

Party Leader
