From the Private Secretary

15 July 1997

Dear John,

BLOODY SUNDAY

Thank you for your letter of 14 July, enclosing a draft for the Prime Minister to send to the Taoiseach, responding to the former Taoiseach's letter of 24 June. Although I asked for this draft, on reflection I do not think a reply is worth sending now. The issue was raised by Ahern at his meeting with the Prime Minister a couple of weeks ago, and there is nothing more to be said for now. A purely formal reply on the lines proposed may at this stage only suggest to the Irish that we are going to sit on their paper.

Yours ever
John
