

Oifig an Tánaiste
Office of the Tánaiste

Prime Minister

24 June 1997

Mr Tony Blair
Prime Minister of Great Britain

Dear Tony,

As you know, I will be leaving my post as Minister for Foreign Affairs on 26 June. I had hoped to say goodbye during our meeting in Amsterdam but a family illness required my early return to Ireland. May I take this opportunity, therefore, to wish you every success in the work that lies ahead. It has been a privilege to work with you.

Yours sincerely,

Good luck to you and the Labour Party and I hope to stay in contact.

Dick Spring

Dick Spring
Tánaiste and Minister for Foreign Affairs