Dear Mr Wilson,

The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you for your letter of 18 July. He has seen the report produced by Standing Committee A and noted your comments.

I understand that, since you wrote, Dr Mowlam has discussed the report in a meeting with the Chairman of the Forum, Mr Gorman, and said that she would write to him when work on the Government's proposed legislation on parades has advanced. This should provide a constructive response to the report produced by your committee.

Yours sincerely,

Philip Barton
