

28/07 '97 11:14 :06

ANNEX A

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF IRELAND
AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM
ESTABLISHING THE INDEPENDENT INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON DECOMMISSIONING

The Government of Ireland and the Government of the United Kingdom:

Recalling their decision on the 28th day of November 1995 to establish an International Body to provide an independent assessment of the decommissioning issue;

Noting that the Report of the International Body presented to the two Governments on the 22nd day of January 1996 recommended that the decommissioning process should take place to the satisfaction of an independent commission;

Noting that the Decommissioning Act, 1997 in Ireland and the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997 in the United Kingdom make reference to a Commission to be established by agreement between the two Governments;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The Independent International Commission is hereby established by the two Governments in accordance with this Agreement.

28/07 '97 11:14 :07

Article 2

- (1) The Independent International Commission shall be independent in the performance of its functions.
- (2) The Independent International Commission shall have the legal capacity of a body corporate in accordance with the Decommissioning Act, 1997 and any Order made by the Secretary of State under the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997.

Article 3

The objective of the Independent International Commission is to facilitate the decommissioning of firearms, ammunition, explosives and explosive substances (herein after referred to as "arms") in accordance with the Report of the International Body, any regulations or arrangements made under the Decommissioning Act, 1997 and any decommissioning schemes within the meaning of section 1 of the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997.

Article 4

In fulfilment of the objectives set out in Article 3, the Independent International Commission shall have the following functions:

- (a) to consult with the talks participants through whatever mechanism they may establish for that purpose, both Governments and others whom it deems relevant on the type of scheme or schemes for decommissioning including the role it might play in respect of each scheme;

28/07 '97 11:14 :08

- (b) to present to the two Governments proposals for schemes for decommissioning having due regard to the views expressed by those it has consulted;
- (c) to undertake, in accordance with any regulations or arrangements made under the Decommissioning Act, 1997 and any decommissioning schemes within the meaning of section 1, and in accordance with section 3, of the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997, such tasks that may be required of it to facilitate the decommissioning of arms, including observing, monitoring and verifying decommissioning and receiving and auditing arms.
- (d) to report periodically to the talks participants through whatever mechanism they may establish for that purpose and both Governments.

Article 5

The Independent International Commission shall consist of a Chairperson and not less than two other members. The Chairperson and other members shall be appointed jointly by the two Governments. Additional members may also be appointed jointly by the two Governments from time to time. The Chairperson and other members shall serve on terms and conditions decided by the two Governments.

Article 6

The Independent International Commission and the persons referred to in section 7(2)(c) of the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997 and section 3(4)(b) of the Decommissioning Act, 1997 shall have such privileges and immunities as may be conferred or provided for in accordance with orders made by the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform and the Secretary of State under those Acts.

28/07 '97 11:14 ☐ :09

Article 7

Such moneys, premises, facilities and services as may be necessary for the proper functioning of the Independent International Commission shall be provided by the two Governments on a basis to be determined by them.

Article 8

Members of the Independent International Commission, members of the staff of the Commission, persons carrying out work for or giving advice to the Commission and agents of the Commission shall be bound not to disclose any information obtained in the course of the performance of their functions as such members or persons unless such disclosure is authorised by or on behalf of the Commission.

Article 9

The Independent International Commission shall appoint auditors who will annually audit the accounts of the Commission. The report of the auditors shall be submitted to both Governments.

Article 10

The Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform and the Secretary of State may make further provision in relation to the Independent International Commission and the decommissioning of arms in accordance with the Decommissioning Act, 1997 and any decommissioning schemes within the meaning of section 1 of the Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997.

28/07 '97 11:14 ☐:10

Article 11

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which the two Governments exchange notifications of their acceptance of it.

Article 12

The Agreement shall continue in force until terminated by mutual agreement and thereafter shall cease to have effect save in so far as and to the extent necessary for meeting any liabilities or disposing in an orderly manner of any remaining assets of the Commission in accordance with the spirit of the Agreement.

In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.

Done at in two originals on the day of 1997.

For the Government of Ireland:

For the Government of the United Kingdom: