Dear Tony,

Members of the Body would be delighted if you could possibly come along and speak to them at the next British Plenary Meeting to be held in York from 22 to 23 September 1998.

I realise of course the ever growing number of invitations that you are bound to receive, but in view of the situation in Northern Ireland I would hope that it will be possible for you to speak to the British and Irish Parliamentarians. Mo Mowlam was good enough to address the Body in December in London, and I am copying this to her.

Best Wishes.

*Yours,
David Winnick*
