

089/11/E

File

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE
WHITEHALL, LONDON SW1A 2AT

AD
CC
JEH

21 November 1996

Dear Betty,

I was concerned by the reports in the press this morning that Members had invited into the House of Commons people associated with the Provisional IRA, and had left them unsupervised for some time. These matters are, of course, for the House itself to regulate, but I should very much welcome your observations on how this might best be pursued.

Yours sincerely,
Tony

TONY NEWTON

The Rt Hon Betty Boothroyd MP