A Chara

At today's meeting with the Secretary of State and Minister for Foreign Affairs I requested an urgent meeting with you.

I would be obliged if you would contact me as soon as possible regarding this meeting.

We are taking the line with the press that we are looking at this request in the light of the circumstances of Sinn Féin's expulsion from the talks, and steering them not to expect a meeting in the near future. The Taoiseach will see him early next week.
