You may wish to be aware that tomorrow's New York Daily News will carry a story that businessman, Chuck Feeney, will give away almost his entire fortune, estimated at $3.5 billion, to set up a foundation to help inner city education. I understand he will retain a modest "few millions".

As you are aware, Feeney is the personal bankroller of the Sinn Fein office in Washington. It is not clear whether this arrangement will be affected by the establishment of the foundation.

cc Ambassador, Washington.
