

TERRORIST PRISONERS IN ENGLAND AND WALES

Name	Offence	Date of Sentence	Sentence	Comments
Hugh Doherty	Member of the Balcombe Street gang. Murder x 6, conspiracy to cause explosions, conspiracy to discharge firearms, false imprisonment, using firearm. Involved in bombings and shootings in and around London in 1974/75 in which nine people died. Arrested following an armed siege in Balcombe Street.	10.2.77	Life: whole life tariff	Seeking repatriation to the Republic of Ireland. Application delayed because of the absence of a tariff. Whole life tariff set 30 January 1998. Repatriation approved by Irish Government. Request referred to the Home Secretary on 13 March 1998.
Martin Joseph O'Connell	Balcombe Street gang. As above	As above	As above	As above
Edward Butler	Balcombe Street gang. As above	As above	As above	As above
Hugh Duggan	Balcombe Street gang. As above	As above	As above	As above
Paul Magee	Murder, attempted murder. Magee murdered a special constable in North Yorkshire and attempted to murder a police officer. Previously sentenced to life imprisonment in Northern Ireland for the murder of an army officer.	30.3.77	Life: Whole life tariff	Seeking repatriation to the Republic of Ireland. Application delayed because of involvement in the attempted armed escape from Whitemoor prison in September 1994. Repatriation approved by the Republic. Request referred to the Home Secretary on 13 March 1998.
William Quin	Murder of a police officer (Stephen Tibble) in 1995.	16.2.88	Life: Tariff 30 years	Extradited from the USA. Seeking repatriation to the Republic. Republic has approved request. Papers returned here 17 March 1998.

TERRORIST PRISONERS IN ENGLAND AND WALES

Name	Offence	Date of Sentence	Sentence	Comments
John Alexander Taylor	Conspiracy to cause explosions, causing explosions, having explosive substance with intent to endanger life, possessing firearm with intent.	13.5.94	30 years	Seeking repatriation to the Republic. Request referred to the Irish authorities on 31 October. Taylor is British and does not appear to meet the criteria for repatriation.
Patrick Kelly	Conspiracy to cause explosions.	16.12.97	20 years	Seeking repatriation to the Republic. Application received 27.1.98. Papers are being collated to enable request to be referred to the Republic.
James Murphy	Conspiracy to cause explosions.	16.12.97	17 years	Seeking repatriation to the Republic. Application received 27.1.98. Papers are being collated to enable request to be referred to the Republic.
Michael Gallagher	Conspiracy to cause explosions.	24.2.98	20 years	Seeking repatriation to the Republic. application received 27.1.98. Papers being prepared.
John Kinsella	Conspiracy to murder, Conspiracy to cause explosions	10.2.94	16 years	Seeking repatriation to the Republic. Consideration on hold due to outstanding appeal.
Brian McHugh	Conspiracy to cause explosions	16.12.97	25 years	Seeking transfer to Northern Ireland. Papers referred to the Northern Ireland Prison Service on 13.3.98.
Nicholas Mullen	Conspiracy to cause explosions.	8.6.90	30 years	Believed to be British. Has not requested a transfer to any other jurisdiction

N.F. One prisoner, James McArdle, remains on remand for offences arising out of the Docklands bombing on 9 February 1996.