Dear Ms. Garvey

Further to a conversation I had with someone in the political office this afternoon, I am faxing you with a proposal for a meeting with the Prime Minister.

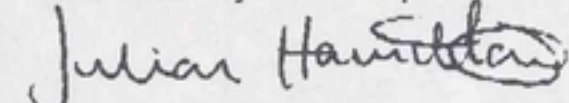

The Youth office of the Methodist Church in Ireland has recently had a small group of young people meeting many key decision makers and politicians from our Province. They are young people involved in working closely with children and teenagers on a church based level and are drawing attention to the concerns of the generation with whom they work.

All of the main Party leaders in the Province have met with the group (or will do shortly). Meetings with Ministers in the N.I. Office and Dublin Government have also been sought - some of these have been arranged with an agreement in principle and we are simply waiting for a diary date to be finalised. We will also meet the main Church leaders and also the President of Ireland.

We have heard that the Prime Minister may travel to Ireland soon and would greatly appreciate the chance of a meeting with him. This would give the Prime Minister a chance to listen and discuss some of the issues that grassroots young people in Ireland are concerned with and I am sure the experience would be beneficial to all involved.

I look forward to a favourable reply, any time of the day would be suitable, and we are a flexible group! Telephone contact: 01232 327191 office hours, 208757 (home), 0410 905431 (Mobile)

Yours sincerely
