Dear Mr Foley,

The Prime Minister greatly enjoyed his visit with the Taoiseach to your pub on 21 December, and the warm welcome he received there.

He has asked me to thank you for the tankard and tie which you so kindly gave him; and to send you the enclosed signed photograph. ✓

The Prime Minister - and all of his party - hugely enjoyed his visit to Downpatrick, and not least the lavish hospitality shown to him at the Oakley Fayre Bakery.

As a small memento of his visit, he has asked me to send you the enclosed signed photograph.

Many thanks for warming all of us up on a cold afternoon; and best wishes for the New Year.

RODERIC LYNE
